MuyoNoYo

A light and refreshing dry sake

MuyoNoYo is a junmai daiginjo sake, made from local Gohyakumangoku sake-rice by Okadaya in Shimane, Japan.

Each rice grain has been polished down to less than 50% of its original size to produce a pure, refined taste.

MuyoNoYo's delicate flavors make it an easy match for any dish. It goes especially well with mild dishes, where it helps bring out the umami. MuyoNoYo, with its lightness and higher acidity levels, is also ideal to enjoy on its own. Serve this versatile sake chilled, at room temperature, or heated, according to your preference.
